Dear Allen:

Thank you very much for your letter of April 27th in response to my letter of April 2nd concerning a report on

[Redacted]

I am most appreciative of the research which you did on my question. I assure you that my only purpose in bringing the question to your attention was to permit you to check up on your own operations.

From my own previous contact with Intelligence, I was most interested in the comment and speculation contained in your letter.

Sincerely yours,
